RCMP Staff. Sgt advised air support is monitoring convoy, which is currently headed down 176th Street.

Convoy is approximately 1000+ vehicles and stretches back to Chilliwack.

All southbound vehicles are being redirected, but with the convergence of the convoy the entire area will essentially be locked down.

Northbound vehicles are still managing to proceed; however, anticipating gridlock shortly.

RCMP will advise if complete shutdown of area occurs.

Intel (OSCL) s.37

s.37 states the convoy is already slowed to around 30km/h.

s.37 supports what we are seeing in real time. No mention yet of any plans for alternative routes being planned.

An active supporter mentioned in his live feed that one option being considered is to wait for 10,000 people to show up and then just walk to the border.

RCMP are reporting a new group of protesters that have arrived at PAC Hwy that are not cooperating with police but there is little info at this time on who they might be and who the organizers are.

RCMP reporting that upwards of 800+ vehicles proceeding along Hwy 1 (West).

Intersections at 176th are heavily congested and protestors parking along side of roadways.

Given volume of vehicles anticipated to come to 176th, congestion likely to expand to surrounding areas.

Intel is on site and closely monitoring in case convoy continues to alternate rally point.

Subject: 930 hrs UPDATE - (12FEB2022) Possible Protest near/at Pacific Highway

Good Morning,

RCMP have set up checkpoints on most access points leading to/from the POE's.

The most notable areas covered are:

- ~ 8th & 176th intersection
- ~ 8th & Hwy 99
- ~ 4th & 176th
- ~ 2nd & 176th
- ~ 184th & 0 Avenue

Additional side streets in surrounding neighbourhood also have RCMP presence.

Protestors are still stationed with flags/signs between 2nd and 4th Avenue.

The CVSE inspection lot has approximately 20+ vehicles and several RV's/trailers are also set up.

One RCMP vehicle is parked monitoring gathering in that location as most arrived prior to checkpoints being set up.

RCMP member report that two commercial trucks (bobtailing) already attempted to join protest along 0 Avenue and were directed away.

Traffic/Commercial volumes north & south remain low.

No indications of blockade at this time.

Management will continue to monitor and update accordingly.

Subject: UPDATE - (12FEB2022) Possible Protest near/at Pacific Highway

Good Morning,

As of 05:30hrs the increased presence of protestors remains.

Protestors are stationed between 2nd and 4th Avenues along the sidewalk (southbound 176th Street), and at the CVSE inspection lot (northbound 176th Street). At the CVSE inspection lot, there are several personal vehicles and 2-3 RVs present.

Given the time of day, not many protestors are active; however, this encampment could likely house upwards of 100+ protestors.

176th Street and all adjacent streets remain open. There are no indications of a blockade at this time.

I will update the SRT, and the Operational Superintendents will continue to monitor the situation throughout the day.

Subject: Possible Protest near/at Pacific Highway

Good morning,

Details of a possible trucker protest at/around Pacific Highway Port of Entry.

- ~ No protestors have been encountered or are visible from POE operations at this time

05:00

- ~ Was greeted onsite by a Global News Cameraman, Justin Okines Personal Info.
- ~ Stated "news Manager Doug Sadora, received a tip there would be a protest at the truck crossing for 05:00"
- ~ Global news cameraman was cordial and advised to set up off site

Current Notifications

- ~ Superintendent Craig Scott (Commercial Operations)
- ~ Chief Bonnet
- ~ Duty Chief Steeksma
- ~ A/Director Vanderstar
- ~ A/Director Coelho
- ~ Surrey RCMP Dispatch (Agent 4308)
- ~ USCBP Supervisor, Blaine Operations
- ~ Intelligence Manager April
- ~ Pac CBSA Media Relations

Ongoing

- ~ Regional Intelligence has been advised and will review.
 - o~ Global news contact info provided
- ~ Global news cameraman, remains in sight, off POE (05:48pst.)
- ~ Pacific Highway Commercial/Highway Superintendents continue to monitor operations
 - o~ Will advise should anything change.

Please note the details provided by the cameraman were vague even when pressed. I'm of the understanding it was a very brief "tip" with little info provided other than a "protest will happen at the truck crossing at 05:00".

Regards,
